KILLED BY FALL*Frightful Accident to Man

School.*SKULL IS FRACTURED*Fell a Distance of 25 Feet—Unfortunate Man Survived by Widow and Eight Children.

William H. Bartlett, about forty-five years old, a painter, fell from a scaffolding on Lee Public School building at 9 o'clock this morning and fractured his skull and died five minutes after reaching the Alexandria Hospital.

The deceased was working on a swinging scaffolding at the rear of the building when in some unexplained manner he fell, landing on his head on the concrete sidewalk below, a distance of twenty-five feet. Dr. Arthur Snowden was called and Mr. Bartlett was placed in an automobile and taken to the Alexandria Hospital, where Dr. Llewellyn Powell was summoned. Nothing, however, could be done for the deceased.

Mr. Bartlett was employed by Birrell & Groves, contracting painters, by whom he had been employed for many years past. He lived at 410 Wilkes street. Besides his wife, he is survived by eight children.

The body was taken to Wheatley's undertaking establishment and prepared for burial.

Mr. Bartlett was a member of Oriental Court, No. 10, and also a member of the Painters' Union.

FRANCE WANTS PEACE.

Country. However, is Ready for Eventualists.

Paris, July 30.—President Poincaré was in conference with members of his ministry practically throughout the night. Premier Viviani, with Ministers Messimy and Gauthier, were called in consultation at 10 o'clock last night. They remained for two hours. At 3.30 a. m. Viviani who is also minister of foreign affairs, was recalled. Messimy and Gauthier returned at 4.15 a. m. The three officials did not leave Elysee Palace until 5.40 o'clock.

A further council of the entire cabinet was held later in the morning. Paris seethed with excitement today. In official circles it was admitted that the republic's position in the war crisis was best expressed in the following quotation from today's Mill.

"While leaving no stone unturned looking toward peace, France is nevertheless taking every precaution.

Crowds that excitedly discussed the possibility of war gathered everywhere throughout the city today. The excitement was increased by announcement that six army corps are fully prepared to move, being provisioned and held ready to entrain at a moment's notice.

Troops guard all tunnels and bridges on the railroad leading to the frontier and patrol aeroplane factories. Orders have also been issued prohibiting manufactures from supplying aeroplanes to private firms or individuals, the republic desiring to reserve the right to claim the entire output.

It is expected that France next will call to the colors the 200,000 men who finished their term of military service last year.

While a passenger train of the Washington and Old Dominion Railway was a short distance north of Bryant's fertilizer factory, half a mile northeast of this city early this afternoon, the locomotive jumped the track at the curve and rolled down the bank.

Engineer Foote and Fireman Kelly escaped with a few bruises. The coaches remained on the track. The accident is said to have been caused by a broken rail.

NEWS OF THE DAY

All stage coaches of the Yellowstone Park Transportation Company, the Yellowstone and Western Stage Company, the Wylie Permanent Camping Company, and the Shaw-Powell Camping Company were held up yesterday morning by two masked men near Shoshone Point, between Old Faithful Inn and the Thumb Lunch Station. There were about 35 stages in all. The bandits got away with about $3,000 in money.

While Europe stands on the brink of general war, word comes from China that President Yuan's government is threatened with overthrow in the vast central province of Szechuan. Five distinct military uprisings against Yuan's iron rule have started in the last few days.

Twelve potash miners were blown to pieces yesterday by the explosion of 80 pounds of dynamite while they were sinking a shaft in the Krajali mine near Cassel, Germany.

Should a general conflict occur in Europe, involving Greece in the impending struggle in the Near East, a situation threatens to arise which may prove embarrassing to the United States as the result of the sale to Greece of the United States battleship Mississippi. The Mississippi, with the Idaho, was sold by the United States two weeks ago, and now is at Hampton Roads, fitting out in preparation for service in the Greek Navy. Should it appear that Greece is to be a party to the impending struggle, it is believed it will be incumbent upon the United States to prevent the sailing of the Illinois from Hampton Roads.

Rev. Vincent Long, superintendent of schools, of Margaretville, N. Y., was shot and wounded fatally by two highwaymen, who held him up on a lonely road yesterday. One of the highwaymen was caught. Long was driving in a buggy when the two highwaymen jumped from a hiding place and pointed a revolver at him, ordering him to stop. Whether he refused to comply has not been learned. Five shots, however, were fired, one of them striking Mr. Long and another killing the horse.

Incensed at the action of the civil authorities in forbidding the anti-war meeting under the direction of the revolutionary labor organizations, which was called in Paris for last night, thousands of the members of the labor bodies assembled at the hall yesterday evening, and, after waiting impatiently for some time, hurling insults at the police, formed a solid phalanx and tried to rush the cordons of gendarmes guarding the entrance. Fighting of the fiercest kind ensued and many of the workmen were badly wounded. Two hundred and fifty were arrested.

In case of a general European war it is regarded by government experts in shipping matters as probable that some of the big trans-Atlantic liners will seek American registry. This could be done by special legislation of Congress, which would lay down new conditions as to American registry, or it could be done as to vessels not over five years old under the Panama Canal act, providing the entire ownership was taken over by consent of the United States.

Though not fully recovered from the severe illness which caused the appointment of Prince Alexander as regent, King Peter took personal command of the Serbian army yesterday. He will lead his troops in battle against the Austrians. Montenegro's forces will join the Serbian army.

SERBIANS SUFFER
SERIOUS REPULSE*Eight Hundred Serbs and 200 Prussians Reported Killed.*DIVISION CAPTURED*First Battle of War Sanguinary—Russia's Defence of Germany—Mobilizing for Struggle.

Vienna, July 30.—Reports here today declare that the first battle of the Austro-Serbian war has been fought at Fofcha, and resulted in a complete victory for the Austrians. One thousand men are reported killed.

Two Serbian divisions were routed by the Austrians. One entire division was captured and the other retreated in disorder.

The reports here declare 800 Serbians were killed. The Austrian loss was placed at 200.

Fofcha is in Bosnia, located on the Drina river, thirty miles southeast of Sarajevo. Serbians have been concentrating along the Drina since war with Austria was first threatened. Austrian forces in this district also mobilized along the Drina.

CZAR DEFIES KAISER.Nicholas Officially Notifies Germany and Austria of Mobilization.

St. Petersburg, July 30.—Russia today officially notified Germany and Austria of the mobilization of fourteen army corps, numbering 1,200,000 men. The czar is said to have expressed the intention of taking the field as commander-in-chief in event of hostilities.

This is Russia's answer to the virtual ultimatum which came from the German foreign office in the unofficial statement that the Kaiser would order the mobilization of his forces unless Russia ceased her military activities within twenty-four hours.

It is explained in St. Petersburg that the mobilization of the fourteen corps ordered by the czar does not mean war with Germany is necessarily inevitable. The troops are to be massed along the Austrian and not the German frontier, it is declared. Intervention by Russia might still be averted, the foreign office stated. If Austria would withdraw from Serbian territory and cease all military preparations diplomatic negotiations with Austria might then be resumed.

It was reported here today that Emperor Franz Joseph had forwarded a personal letter to the czar. It is generally regarded as certain, however, that any efforts of Austria to re-open diplomatic negotiations while its troops menace Serbian territory, will be met with rebuffs.

The foreign office today emphasized its stand that the invasion of Serbia would not be countenanced.

That intervention will mean a conflict with Germany is not admitted, but there is little hope this may be avoided if Austria continues her advance upon Serbia.

In addition to the mobilization of the fourteen army corps, the czar today caused the publication of a ukase calling thousands of reservists to the colors. These include all reservists of twenty-three governments and seventy-one districts in fourteen others, retired Cossacks of six territories, naval reserves of sixty-four districts, reserve officers of the hospital service, and part of the reserves of nine districts.

On August 3rd, I shall open a summer school at the Lee School for the purpose of coaching pupils who are deficient in their school work. Terms $2.50 per week for one subject, and special terms for additional classes.

ERROR BAR NEW COMERS.No New Fraternal Orders Can be Organized in Virginia.

Richmond, July 30.—An item that will be of much interest to insurance companies throughout the State is the recent discovery of an error in the engrossing of the law governing insurance issued by fraternal orders. The effect of the new discovery is to make it impossible for any fraternal order to organize in the State of Virginia for the purpose of engaging in the insurance business.

The error in the case in point was made by the engrossing clerk of the last session of the general assembly of Virginia, when an act governing the law by which insurance might be issued by fraternal orders was passed.

The law in its present form provides that no fraternal insurance society shall be allowed to begin business in the State of Virginia until it shall have secured insurance on at least 250 lives for the sum of $100,000 each. The bill as passed provided that insurance on each life should be $1,000 for each life insured, but the amount erroneously appeared on the engrossed bill raised to $100,000.

Inasmuch as the bill as it is engrossed is the law, the effect of this provision is to make it impossible for any fraternal order to get 250 men to take policies of $100,000 each. No fraternal order was every known to issue a policy in that amount, and no man would take out so large a policy in a new institution.

This error in the bill makes the law for all practical purposes null and void and prevents any further organization of fraternal orders in Virginia.

SLEEPER SHOT FRIEND.Drew Gun From Pillow And in Scuffle It Was Discharged.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 30.—Ticking a friend's nose with a straw led to the death of Elmon J. Lissey, thirty years old, of North Braddock. According to the report received at the coroner's office, Lissey visited his friend John Quentin, when he entered the house he found Quentin in bed, dosing. Taking a straw, Lissey began to tickle Quentin's nose.

Awakened suddenly from his nap by the irritation of the straw point, Quentin jumped up in bed, pulled his revolver from under the pillow, and in a friendly manner pointed it at Lissey.

The latter, thinking his friend over excited and about to shoot, grasped with him, and in the scuffle the revolver was discharged, the bullet entering Lissey's heart and instantly killing him.

MAY PROVE TO BE MURDER.Negro Lad Killed by Train Said to Have Been Pushed Under.

Wilmington, Del., July 30.—Olden Waters, a negro lad, 20 years old, of Hurlock, Md., fell under the wheels of a moving train at Harrington late Tuesday night and both his legs were cut off. He died in a hospital at Cambridge, Md., this morning and Hazen Brooks, a white man, was arrested in this city by Inspector Gorman, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, police, on a charge that he shoved Waters from the train and is responsible for his serious injuries. This afternoon Brooks was taken to Dover to be detained pending an investigation.

VIRGINIAN IS MENTIONED.S. J. Graham Spoken of as Possible Successor of McReynolds.

Washington D. C., July 30.—Samuel J. Graham, assistant attorney general, who was born at Lexington and practiced law at Staunton before going to Pittsburg, has been discussed among administration leaders at the capital as a likely successor of Attorney General McReynolds should the latter be elevated to the Supreme Court bench.

Lynchburg, Va., July 30.—The convention of school superintendents of Virginia opened here yesterday with 102 of 116 superintendents present.

A heated discussion was held on the question of teachers' certificates without a result being reached. Discussing the appropriation of $200,000 for small schools, the superintendents considered a recommendation that $150,000 be set apart for one-room schools and the remainder for two-room schools, the funds to be apportioned according to the length of terms.

Twenty-five persons were killed and fifty seriously injured by an explosion of fireworks at Tudela, in Navarre Province, Spain, Tuesday night. Many of the victims were blown to pieces.

MRS. HALL FACES
MURDER CHARGE*Enters Upon Trial for Killing Her Husband Several Months Ago.*EXAMINE WITNESSES*Commonwealth's Attorney and Counsel for Defense Make Formal Statements to the Jury.

Louis, Va., July 30.—White of face, but stern of heart, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Hall, charged with the murder of her husband, Victor K. Hall, on the dark morning of April 15, entered yesterday upon her formal trial. Beside her sat a lawyer whose face was whiter than her own. R. Lindsay Gordon, working with untiring effort to save his client from a strain of guilt, and heavy lines are graven about his lips. Next to him are seated his brother, Alexander T. Gordon, upon whom he often rests, and Hill Carter, the noted attorney of Richmond. Opposite them are Commonwealth's Attorney W. C. Bibb and M. J. Fulton, O'Flaherty & Byrd.

Mrs. Hall sits between Sterling Hall, brother of the dead man, sits with the prosecution, while his father and mother give their support to the accused. It is a strange case. Ties of blood are wiped out and forgotten, and shelter is given to a lately alien head. And calmest among them all is the woman whose life or liberty the law may declare a forfeit.

The jurymen were sworn and the trial formally began. Again Mrs. Hall was forced to listen to the indictment, and again she passed through the ordeal without a tremor. Commonwealth's Attorney Bibb delivered the opening statement for the prosecution, declaring that it will appear from the evidence that all the circumstances of the crime taken together and as a whole, will place the guilt upon Mrs. Hall. R. Lindsay Gordon replied, and he stated that not only would all the evidence be consistent with his client's innocence, but that it would go further and prove that innocence. He spoke gently and softly, as one who addresses friendly ears. He had and held attention wholly undivided and all the courtroom listened. He was sorrowful rather than accusing. From his lips fell no criticism of those whose suspicion still rests upon Mrs. Hall. He appealed rather for consideration of all the circumstances surrounding the crime, circumstances, which, he says, will prove the innocence of the white-faced woman who sat beside him.

The courthouse was packed with a crowd larger than any of these which have been seen here before. People from the countryside motored, drove and walked to the courthouse this morning, and at an early hour every seat was taken.

The jurymen were sworn and the trial formally began. Again Mrs. Hall was forced to listen to the indictment, and again she passed through the ordeal without a tremor.

SAYS PROHIBITION
LAW IS A FAILURE*Baltimore's Mayor Declares It Is Openly Violated in South.*WANTS HIGH LICENSE*Mr. Preston Extends Invitation to Richmond Officials to Attend Baltimore Centennial.

Richmond, July 30.—"My observation of prohibition as it operates in the South," said Mayor James H. Preston, of Baltimore, at the Jefferson Hotel last night, "confirms my belief that prohibition as a method of dealing with the liquor question is a failure. I have had opportunity to observe the working of the law in the Southern prohibition States through which we have passed on this trip and have found that, in the cities at least, it is quite openly violated.

"In my opinion a prohibitory law which takes away from the legitimate liquor business its legal status and leaves in its place an irregular traffic which it is impossible to regulate, is fundamentally wrong. When such a law not only does not prohibit, but takes from the State treasury a large revenue that was formerly received from the legitimate regulation of the business it is nothing less than a failure.

"There is only one solution of the liquor problem, and it does not lie in prohibition. The Southern States which now have prohibition, as well as the other States of the South, will find the ultimate solution in strict regulation coupled with high license. That plan places the sale of liquor in the hands of responsible dealers, and saves to the State the revenue that should flow from every business within its borders. Prohibition destroys the revenue without destroying the abuse."

Mayor Preston prefaced his remarks on the liquor issue with the statement that he was loath to express himself on a controversial subject. He was aware that Virginia was engaged in a keen discussion of the merits of prohibition just at this time, said Mayor Preston, and would not undertake to say that it could or could not be made to work well in this State. His views on prohibition were strictly personal he said, and based on personal observation and study.

BABY BORN ON TRAIN.Mother then Continued Journey to Meet Husband Here.

New York, July 30.—Mrs. Ethel England, 25 years old, living in a suburb of Buffalo, became the mother of a boy on a New York Central Railroad train at Buffalo, but having an appointment with her husband, Henry England, a salesman, who has been stopping with friends at 1063 Fox street, the Bronx, would not delay her journey and arrived yesterday evening, only to be hurried to the Harlem Hospital.

Mrs. England received attention from a physician, who thought it best for her to remain in that city or go to her home near by, but she announced that she would prefer to make the trip to New York and place herself under the care of a local physician.

The train officials then notified the Harlem Hospital authorities and an ambulance in charge of Dr. Rafsky was in waiting for the mother and child. They were hurried to the hospital and the husband and father received word that his family were doing well and that he could call upon them in the hospital.

Select Site for Plant.

GAME TOMORROW.

Tomorrow, Friday, July 31st, at 3 p. m. Alexandria-Washington Lodge and Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons, will cross bats at the local baseball park. This game will be for the benefit of the Children's Home and while a large crowd is expected, a great crowd is desired. Those who failed to see the first game between these teams should not miss this opportunity, and those who did see the first game will be surprised at the improvement in the two teams as all of the players have been practicing regularly.

Washington Lodge promises to give while Jackson Lodge admits that its team has all the class and is certain its run of convention victories will remain unbroken. Owing to the absence of Mr. Brumback from the city, there will be no high and lofty tumbling, but every other form of gymnastics is promised.

The Andrew Jackson team will be picked from the following named players: Foster, Blumenfeld, Duffy, Rou, Pawcett, Pendleton, Pitts, J. Gary, Sullivan, Fletcher, Goods, Acton, Cox, Ticer, Arnold and Davis. Jackson Lodge will depend upon Latham, Wade, Harper, Newton, J. Schwartzmann, A. Schwartzmann, Hoffman, Caton, Clarke, Salyers and Knight.

Wade and Latham for Jackson, and Blumenfeld and Foster for Washington, will probably start as batteries. No one knows who will finish.

Elementary Disturbance Caused Considerable Damage in Alexandria July 30, 1913.

Today one year ago probably the most furious thunder storm ever witnessed, by the present generation struck this city. The day had been exceedingly hot, and between 3 and 4 o'clock the heavens became overcast with every indication of an approaching thunder storm. It was supposed the disturbance would be on the order of those which often prevail during summer months, and it at first gave no serious cause for alarm. As the heavens grew much darker, however, than on ordinary occasions, and the wind began to howl, there was some apprehension, and as it gathered force conditions became alarming.

It seemed as though two storms met, and the wind, which was from the northeast, soon blew with hurricane force. It was estimated that it reached a velocity of 75 miles an hour. The rain was hurled through the streets in sheets, and large hail stones added to the terror.

The worst of the disturbance raged about fifteen minutes, during which the wind shrieked, suggestive of the yells of thousands of demons. The darkness was so great that it was necessary to use artificial light in houses.

Window panes at this time were being smashed, houses unroofed and trees uprooted, while some iron fences were prostrated. In a number of instances parts of brick houses were demolished, and the fall of bricks added terror to the scene.

Electric, telephone and telegraph poles were prostrated and operations at places depending upon power from the electric plant were brought to a standstill. Much sharp lightning accompanied the disturbance.

Scenes on the river were especially thrilling. Two excursion steamers carrying large crowds, were a short distance below the city, and their experience caused the greatest apprehension to all on board. By the coolness of the officers and proper handling of the boats, however, no one was hurt. A heavy canoe on the river front, between Wilkes and Gibson streets, was picked up by the wind and hurled a distance of twelve or fifteen feet and smashed.

Every street in Alexandria bore evidence of the havoc wrought by the elements. Many trees were prostrated, some of which had withstood the storms of years, while huge limbs were twisted from others. On some thoroughfares pedestrians after the storm had to pick their way by reason of the many branches which blocked the streets.

It became necessary to cut off the current from the electric works, and for several nights passage through the streets at night was difficult by reason of the many obstructions in the way of tin roofs and debris from trees. It took over a week to get all the telephones in working order.

Fortunately no human being was hurt, and the only fatality was the instant death of a horse, which trod on a live wire on Duke street, between Fairfax and Lee, early next morning.

Police Getting Busy Looking for Unmuzzled, Unlicensed and Ownerless Canines.

The police were active during the latter part of July and August last year in ferreting out unmuzzled, unmuzzled and ownerless dogs. Many persons were fined for allowing animals to run at large unmuzzled and others for harboring dogs upon which no licenses had been paid. The same exertions are to be made this summer to rid the city of all ownerless dogs, while those preferring to keep such animals will be made to observe the law by procuring licenses and muzzling them when they are allowed to run at large.

The laws of Alexandria provide for the muzzling of canines at all seasons of the year when they appear on the streets.

The coming of the "dog-days," especially if the season happens to bring with it one or more prolonged heated periods, attracts the attention of the public generally much more to the danger from rabies than to the definite reports of the spread of the disease at other seasons of the year, which ought to arouse solicitude. Boards of Aldermen, City Councils and town officials of other kinds wake up from the most absolute lethargy with regard to the disease at this time, and, especially in the smaller towns and country places, pass ordinances and revive regulations requiring dogs to be muzzled while on the streets. This is all the more amusing because the term "dog-days" has no reference to dogs, but is borrowed from the Roman epoch, the rising of the sun in the latter part of July. The twenty days preceding and the twenty days following this conjunction were for the Romans dies canis, the days of the dog—or the dog star. Rome had its fiercest heats usually during this period; therefore, the time was dreaded and came to have the reputation of an unhealthy season, though not with any special reference to the dogs of Rome. In our day the popular meaning of the "dog-days" is that dogs are especially likely to go mad at this time. The consequences is that, while the animals are made uncomfortable by nose muzzling, their discomfort is greatly added to by the foolish dread which keeps people from giving them water or caring for them properly. Rabies may occur at any season of the year; the actual statistics show greater frequency of the disease during the winter than during the summer months. It is most common in the early spring, and March and April would be a much better time to select for "dog-days" in the popular sense than the weeks of July and August that have by misapprehension come to be looked on as the special period of danger.

WILL RETURN TONIGHT.
Late Major King Succeeded by Captain Peyton.

Peyton, of Charlottesville, who was elected to fill the vacancy yesterday. By special permission Captain Peyton appeared before Colonel Jo Lane Stern and passed the examination for his new grade.

LIGHTNING PICKS CHICKENS.
Laurel, Del., July 30.—A lightning bolt this afternoon struck a light grown chicken and stripped it as clean of feathers as a new-laid egg, leaving the bird none the worse for the experience, except for lack of covering. The strange incident was witnessed by the owner of the chicken, a farmer and his family and an automobile party from Laurel, who happened to be on the road during the storm.

From present indications there are but little hopes that the war spirit now manifest in Europe will be allayed until a general clash of the largest nations on the globe shall have taken place. What have been regarded during the past forty-eight hours as good omens, have proved to be illusions, and the great powers are literally up in arms. It requires but a small spark to set ablaze a fire which will sweep continental Europe.

The martial spirit is manifest everywhere, and this is by no means confined to the masculine gender, as Serbian and Montenegrin women are dropping the distaff and enlisting as soldiers, all anxious to fight against Austria, the alleged oppressor of their country.

Servia is a small nation, but the courage it has ever displayed has attracted the attention of the world. It is suggested that Alexander the Great sprang from that country, who after a short but wonderful career, wept because there were no more nations on the globe to conquer. There may be another embryonic Iskender in that realm at present.

The dove of peace is about to take its flight from Europe to other climes and the World's Peace Conference, to have been held in Vienna in September, has scented the smell of powder and the conference has been called off.

The situation today may be summed up as follows:

The London Times is advised that diplomatic relations between Austria and Russia have been suspended.

Belgrade, under bombardment from Austrian ships in the Danube, is set afire by shells, which destroyed the fortifications and damaged the royal palace.

The president of the council of the empire of Russia announces that Russia will take whatever steps that may prove necessary to protect Serbia from further Austrian onslaughts.

Austria prepares for special issuance of $250,000,000 in treasury notes to finance the movement of her troops.

Paris begins to lay up provisions, in the expectation of a siege similar to that of 1870. Anti-war meeting forbidden by the authorities, promoters battle with police.

Germany prepares to put army on war footing and mobilizes navy. Inspired telegram printed in Frankfurt Gazette, under Berlin dated 24, practically official notice to Russia to cease extensive military preparations.

PLAIN DUTY OF A NEWSPAPER.

Newspapers of small cities and towns are often handicapped by being compelled to treat interesting subjects with a few lines or ignore them altogether, from the fact that in such communities the publication of certain actual happenings are liable to cause offence to some person. This is due to the fact that in small communities the members are well known to one another, and the publishers of the local papers often find intimate acquaintances parties to brawls or sensational occurrences. In the large cities, which are worlds in themselves, conditions are different. The editor's circle of intimates is naturally circumscribed, and he might walk the streets all day without meeting an acquaintance.

In the small cities there are more or less requests made to publishers to omit reference to current news, in which certain parties would be made to figure ingloriously. When law-abiding people get into trouble accidentally there is no good reason why courtesy should not be shown, but what claim chronic violators of the law have upon newspapers is hard to see, as they voluntarily make themselves public property by persisting in acts or occupations which bring about their arrest.

The Richmond Journal in commenting upon this subject recently said:

"There rests upon a newspaper duties to its reader just as solemn, just as compelling, just as insistent to conscientious men, as any resting upon a man in any of the personal relations of life."

The Lexington Gazette, after quoting the Journal's suggestion, says:

"There come times in the experience of newspapers when the editor, if he should consult his own inclination or even personal preferences, would dismiss certain items with only a line or two. But it often happens that the suppression of news of this character tends to give false security to wrong-doers, whereas, if there is possibility that the white lights of newspaper publicity will be turned on, this knowledge often has a salutary effect."

EMPLOYEES MUST BE COURTEOUS.

Notice was served on all Richmond department employees that they must be polite to citizens, especially in answering telephone calls, or when complaints are made. The notice came in the form of a resolution adopted by the administrative board at its meeting yesterday and aimed directly at the Street-Cleaning Department. The resolution, which was adopted unanimously, follows:

"Whereas, numerous complaints of rudeness and abruptness of manner in answering phone complaints, and, in some instances, answering personal complaints, made to the office of the superintendent of Street Cleaning, have come to the ears of various members of the board; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That upon any repetition of such conduct the person accused will be arraigned, tried, and, on proof, summarily dismissed from the city service."

The action of the Richmond authorities should extend throughout the commonwealth. It is often difficult to get certain city officials to realize that they are public servants, employed by the people they treat brusquely, who are taxed to pay for their services.

In the main, public officials in Alexandria are generally courteous and patient towards all who have business with them, and this should not only be required of the men higher up, but of the subordinates also. No doubt their patience is often unnecessarily tested by chronic fault-finders, but courtesy and forbearance towards all is the wisest course.

A few days ago orders were issued to all Southern Railway employees to be courteous and accommodating to patrons of that system. There is probably no class of people who are more cruelly tried than railroad men, as some passengers board trains for the express purpose of finding fault. If the ventilator is closed they want it opened, and vice versa. Politeness costs nothing, and patience towards soreheads is probably better than acting the part of the foolkiller.

Details of a fierce revolt of natives against Dutch rule on the west coast of Borneo, have been received. The rebels murdered the burgomaster, burned the official buildings and residences, wounded the district chief, and then marched on the city. They were met by troops and regiments, many being killed.

DIES WITH HIS HORSES.

His "Only Comfort" Farmer Slays
Them Before Sheriff Comes.

Perry, Okla., July 30.—Because he was about to lose his team of horses through the foreclosure of a mortgage, Gottlieb Wigger a farmer, today shot and killed the animals, buried them in his pasture, and ended his own life over their graves.

Wigger lived alone, and often told friends his horses were his only comfort. A letter found in the stable said in part:

"Often when I was overcome with grief, with no one to console me, these old friends would act as if they knew all about my distress, and doubtless they had some sense of it. It would break my heart to see them come into other people's hands."

ACCUSED MAN ON STAND.

Wytheville, Va., July 30.—Samuel Davidson, on trial here for the murder of "Ben" Wilson, was on the witness stand for some six hours yesterday.

On cross-examination he said he found his wife with Wilson and two other persons in the telephone office at Max Meadows on the night of April 3, and on April 19 he detected his wife in an effort to meet Wilson in the mountain near his home. He also said Wilson and Mrs. Davidson were seen together on Monroe street in Wytheville, a few hours before the shooting.

Davidson admitted that he purchased the automatic shotgun an hour and a half before the shooting with the intention of killing Wilson. Testimony closed late this afternoon. Instructions will be given the jury in the morning, followed by the argument.

FATAL FIGHT ON TRAIN.

Orem Waters Dies at Cambridge Hospital.

Federalburg, Md., July 30.—Orem Waters, a 19-year-old colored lad, of Hurdock, was knocked from an Atlantic City excursion train Tuesday night, having his lower limbs horribly crushed, and died at the Cambridge Hospital yesterday.

A fight between some white boys and colored boys was started shortly after the train pulled out from Harrington, and during the encounter Waters was knocked from the train, which was running about 40 miles an hour. Detective Gorman, of the Pennsylvania Road, arrested Hazel Brooks, of Williamsburg, immediately after the disturbance was quelled.

SOCIALIST "ANTIS" RIOTOUS.

Stuttgart, Wurttemberg, Germany, July 30.—Socialist anti-war demonstrations in this city yesterday led to such serious collisions between the manifestants and the police that the authorities called out the troops to cope with the disturbances.

The district where most of the foreign legations are situated was surrounded by police guards, who were attacked with volleys of stones by the people.

FIGHTS BARBED WIRES.

Middletown, N. Y., July 30.—Edward Elliott, eight years old, is abed in bandages trying to recover from wounds he received in a fight with a barbed wire fence a few nights ago. He was asleep at the time and did not awake until the fight was ended. One wound lay close to the jugular vein; his face and throat were badly torn and his nightgown hung in shreds. There were gashes all over his body.

The fight knocked him out. When he came to himself he ran screaming into the house and a doctor was called.

The boy has been unable to tell how he got into the fight. As a guard against future wanderings Mr. Elliott said that hereafter the key will be turned on the outside of the boy's bedroom every night.

YOUTH CRUSHED TO DEATH.

He is Caught Between Loaded Wagon and Traction Engine.

Hagerstown, Md., July 30.—William Roy Grove, 26 years old, son of Dr. A. B. Grove, of Shady Grove, was crushed to death Tuesday afternoon while helping at wheat thrashing on the John Bitner farm.

A traction engine and pole were used to push a wagon loaded with wheat up an incline at the barn. The pole broke and the wagon ran back against the engine, crushing Grove. He was injured internally and died three hours later. He is survived by his father, stepmother, a brother and a sister.

BULLET IN THIGH.

Dallas Elkins, of Near Pulaski, Is Accidentally Wounded.

Pulaski, Va., July 30.—Friday evening at a point near McAdam crossing, in the vicinity of the locality in Peak Knob Mountain, known as "The Hole in the Wall," Dallas Elkins, a young white man, was shot through the left thigh, the wound being very severe, though not necessarily dangerous.

It was accidentally inflicted by an automatic pistol in the hands of another young white man, named Robert Boothe, who is alleged to have drawn his weapon to repel an assault said to have been made upon him and Elkins by another young white man named W. K. Holliday, who, it is claimed, discharged a loaded shotgun at Elkins and Boothe while they were sitting in a buggy.

Drs. Dyer and Jones were summoned from Pulaski and rendered surgical attention to Elkins, and he was then taken to his home. Holliday disappeared in the mountains and so far has not been apprehended.

Baby Strangled to Death.

Philadelphia, July 30.—Pinned against a side of the house by a heavy screen door which fell on her while she was at play, 2-year-old Esther Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lynch, of No. 1127 North Fifth-third street, was strangled to death yesterday in the yard adjoining her home.

For sale by all dealers.

PAYMASTER ARRIVES.

More than $25,000 Disbursed to Virginia Militiamen.

Gordonsville, Va., July 30.—Joy reigned supreme last night in the joint camp of instructing, where hundreds of young Virginians are learning the art of modern warfare. The militiamen are doubly happy; first, because their arduous duties are ended, and secondly, because the government paymaster and his efficient corps of assistants arrived only this afternoon, and there now is money in the depleted pocketbooks.

The arrival of the paymaster was unexpected and was more than a pleasant surprise, as he was not due until tomorrow morning. It was found, however, that it would be necessary to pay the troops last night in order to get them off for home tomorrow morning.

With a staff of three assistants, the paymaster began distributing the funds immediately after mess this evening. He started at the head of the camp, where the Second Regiment is quartered, and took the companies by turn.

More than $25,000 was disbursed to the volunteers for their services. The men received the regular pay of the United States Army from the brigadier general down to the smallest private. Some of the money is owed by the boys, but most of them will return home with some cash from their pleasant vacation.

LEADBEATERS' SUCCESS.

E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, the enterprising druggists, rather than await the ordinary methods of introduction, urged the Dr. Howard Co. to secure a quick sale for their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia by offering the regular 50c bottle at half price.

In addition to selling a 50c bottle of Dr. Howard's specific for 25c, Leadbeater & Sons have so much faith in the remedy that they will refund the money to anyone whom it does not cure.

When your head aches your stomach does not digest food easily and naturally when there is constipation, specks before the eyes, tired feeling, giddiness, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, heart burn, sour stomach, roars or ringing in the ears, melancholy and liver troubles, Dr. Howard's specific will cure you. If it does not, it will not cost you a cent.

This latest achievement of science is of great value in curing sick headache. Thousands of women are today free from that painful disease solely through the use of this specific.

Woman's Duty to Herself.
Every woman owes it to herself to keep in good health. No one can reasonably be expected to maintain a cheerful disposition when half sick. Indigestion and constipation are two of the most common ills to which women are subject and fortunately are easily cured. Mrs. H. C. Getty, Indiana, Pa., writes: "Last summer I was advised by a friend to try Chamberlain's Tablets for indigestion and constipation. This medicine not only cured me of these disorders, but toned up my whole system so that my health has been better than for years since taking them." For sale by all dealers.
